

Clive Page is Professor of Pharmacology, King's College London and Director of the Sackler Institute of Pulmonary Pharmacology, King's College London. Clive's main research interests are in the pharmacology of inflammation and respiratory disease, and he has published over 300 scientific papers and book chapters.

Clive was the co-founder and previous Chairman of the Board of Verona Pharma plc, a NASDAQ listed Company developing new drugs for the treatment of Respiratory Diseases. He is a Non Executive Director of PreP Biopharma and a Trustee of the Fraunhofer Institute of Toxicology and Experimental Medicine in Hannover. Clive started his early career in the Pharmaceutical Industry at Sandoz Ltd, Basel, Switzerland and regularly consults to both Pharmaceutical and Biotech companies. Clive has previously held Non Executive Board positions at Cardiome in Canada, Stirling Products Ltd in Perth, Australia, Immune Regulation Ltd, Epiendo, Babraham Biotechnology Ltd and as a Trustee of the Babraham Institute, Cambridge.

Clive is a former Chairman of the Animal Science Group of the Royal Society of Biology and has contributed widely to the public debate about the use of animals in Research. Clive is currently President of the British Pharmacological Society.

Clive was awarded the Sandoz Prize from the British Pharmacological Society in 1988, The Tanabe Young Investigators Prize from the American College of Clinical Pharmacology in 1996 and the Society of Biology President's Medal in 2012 for "Outstanding Contributions to the Life Sciences". He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Biology and an Honorary Fellow of the British Pharmacological Society. Clive was awarded an OBE for "Services to Pharmacology" in 2017.